SUMMARY

I'm a computer science diploma student in my final year, and I'm looking for an internship to finish my programme. I have a strong desire to learn and to go past any obstacles that stand in the way of achievement in the field of computer science. I like problems that require critical thinking and problem-solving because they help me grow as a person. I want to be a part of a diverse team that supports the mission and objectives of the company. Lastly, I am willing to learn and apply the knowledge for an improvement and also gain working experience.
